Who are your key 3? You + 2 other units of people (individuals or couples) that will commit to this group or ministry and for what period of time?

What will it take to get your group/ministry started?

What resources do you need?

Are you planning to use a specific curriculum? Following Pastor's messages? Studying a book of the Bible? Understand that at least once or twice a year you will follow the Destiny curriculum provided for your group (40 Days at beginning of year and any message series where we all bring the same focus)

Location of group meetings?

Day and time of group meetings? It is highly encouraged that groups meet weekly or at least bi-weekly.

Who is doing what by when to get this started? Share your timeline of preparation

When will you be ready to launch? (best months to start are Jan. or Aug. following Community Group Sunday – but other starting points may be discussed)

What questions do you have for the Destiny leadership?

How can we get under you as you step out in leadership?

LEADERSHIP APPLICATION

Community Group Leaders

Ministry Leaders

Anyone who is interested in leadership at Destiny should have attended our services regularly for at least one year, participated in a Community Group and in serving the church in some capacity, attended Discovering Destiny and walked through our process of becoming a fully devoted member of the Destiny family.

If you are wanting to start or lead a Community Group or other ministry at Destiny, please fill out this application completely and submit it to a pastoral leader or to the church office.

Your signature below confirms that the information in the application is correct and affirms your commitment to our core values and servant leadership at Destiny.
